Wine & Cheese series returns for 2019

Treasury Brisbane's hugely popular Wine & Cheese series returns in 2019, with its first instalment set to showcase some of Southern Australia's finest cheese and wine under a canopy of stars in the iconic Treasury Hotel Courtyard.

On Friday 8 March, bask in three hours of wine tasting from some of Southern Australia's greatest wine regions, including the Barossa Valley, Adelaide Hills, Yarra Valley, Mornington Peninsula, Coonawarra and the Clare Valley.

Cheese from a collection of Victoria and South Australia's premier suppliers will offer the perfect pairing to the exquisite wine on offer, as well as antipasto, artisan breads, charcuterie, assorted dips and more.

A DJ set and live entertainment from country music artist and 2018 Golden Guitar finalist Casey Barnes will complete the perfect Friday night under the stars.

For the serious wine aficionado, indulge in a VIP ticket into the Penfolds Cellar Door at The Lab and enjoy an extensive array of drops from one of Australia's most famed and respected winemakers, including Cellar Door exclusives and Penfolds Special Edition 175th Anniversary.
