

Your choice of bottomless La Maison Du Thé French handcrafted tea

English Breakfast - A classic blend of black teas, blended to provide a gloriously reviving drink that is suitable for any time of the day.

Earl Grey - A traditional oriental blend of the un-smoked Chinese teas. It casts a spell on all lovers of the fine bergamot from Calabria

Darjeeling - Known as the 'Champagne of teas' with subtle a taste of amber liquor + a hint of ripe fruits. This tea can be enjoyed all day long.

Green Tea - Rich in antioxidants this traditional green tea is a delicate equilibrium between the woody, floral + fruity notes of this genre.

Lemon + Ginger - A deliciously well-balanced blend of cool lemongrass + warm spicy ginger.

Peppermint - A lively, refreshing mint infusion which resonates a fresh clean taste in the mouth.

Chamomile - This infusion carries notes of citron + a light bitterness, akin to that of chicory.

Enjoy Chef's selection of our finest sweet + savoury delights

Adults $50 | Children $25

Freshly made dainty gourmet ribbon sandwiches

Traditional plain + sultana scones
with a selection of jams + clotted cream

Petite quiche & frittata

Decadent pastries prepared by our own Pastry Chefs

|

The history of high tea...

According to legend, one of Queen Victoria's (1819-1901) ladies-in-waiting, Anna Maria Stanhope (1783-1857), known as the Duchess of Bedford, is credited as the creator of afternoon teatime. Because the noon meal had become quite small, the Duchess suffered from "a sinking feeling" at about four o'clock in the afternoon.

At first the Duchess had her servants sneak her a pot of tea and a few breadstuffs. Adopting the European tea service format, she invited friends to join her for an additional afternoon meal at five o'clock in her rooms at Belvoir Castle. The menu centred around small cakes, bread and butter sandwiches, assorted sweets, and, of course, tea. This summer practice proved so popular, the Duchess continued it when she returned to London, sending cards to her friends asking them to join her for "tea and a walk in the fields". The practice of inviting friends to come for tea in the afternoon was quickly picked up by other social hostesses.

THE HEIGHT OF High tea.

Enjoy an elegant high tea experience in the ambient surrounds of Treasury Heritage Hotel

#treasuryhightea #thelabbris #treasurycasino

TREASURY
BRISBANE